

Free Workshops: Learn how planning for the future
can help care for your loved ones and our community

RESERVE EARLY – LIMITED SEATING

Pima Council on Aging
March 25, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.
(light snack included)
at Pima Council on Aging, 8467 E. Broadway
Reserve your seat by calling 790-0504

Building a strong foundation often means taking the more difficult path - one that calls for forward thinking, and a long-term commitment.

ATTEND THE FREE ANNUAL “LEAVE A LEGACY” WORKSHOP ON WILLS, TRUSTS, LIVING WILLS, POWER OF ATTORNEY, TITLING OF PROPERTY, ARIZONA TRUST CODE, AVOIDING PROBATE AND TAXES, ETC.

In cooperation with the Planned Giving Round Table of Arizona “LEAVE A LEGACY” program, Pima Council on Aging invites you to attend a free “WILLS” workshop.

What is it you need to do to have your estate in order? Have you done everything you need to do: Wills, Trusts, Living Wills, Powers of Attorney, Titling of Property, Arizona Trust Code, Avoiding probate and taxes etc.? Attorney, Kay Richter will discuss what documents you should have in place and what you should have done. Bring all your questions.

Kay Richter chairs the Estate Planning and Elder Law Lunch group for the State Bar. She is past president of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys-Arizona. Kay completed a 3 year elected term on the Probate and Trust Council of the State Bar of Arizona. She served on the board of Pima Council on Aging for 12 years. She was the initial organizer and chair Southern Arizona Sole Practitioners Section of the State Bar.

Kay has the highest rating possible by the largest evaluator of attorneys. Additionally she received the 2003 national award for outstanding achievement by the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys.